Ainara Alleyne “Rising Star” Award

Ainara Alleyne is a Hamilton born student and the creator of Ainara’s Bookshelf. What started off as an Instagram account, featuring diverse authors and books with the goal of spreading representation and growing a love of reading kids, and is now a TV series. She has spoken to student teachers at Western University, at pedagogy symposiums and in classrooms about the importance of diversity in literature and in the classroom. She has been the junior ambassador for FOLD, Telling Tales, the MS read-a-thon, works as a contributor for CBC Kids News and was the Hamilton Public Library’s first Junior Librarian in Residence. Ainara hopes to encourage more kids to use their voices to help better their community.

This award will be given to a student who is excelling in an academic field and/or area of interest or extra-curricular activity. The recipient of this award must be motivated and hardworking and have made a positive impact in their community or school. The winner will receive a monetary prize of $500.

The winner of this award will be notified prior to the in-person Awards Gala on February 22, 2025. Applicants will be required to be present at the event to receive their award.
